A full complement of window cleaning tools delivers four times the selling power.

Squeegees represent just 25% of the window cleaning products sale—add poles, scrubbers and soap to compound profitability.

When you partner with Ettore, you have the strength of the category leader behind you. From a patented squeegee design invented in 1936, Ettore has grown to become the leading brand of window cleaning tools sold at retail today. We offer a complete program to help you generate add-on sales for increased profitability.

We continue to drive the category with a commitment to innovation.

Exclusive ergonomic designs in consumer-tested colors, “lifestyle” packaging that communicates product benefits and more. All made to professional quality standards backed by our 100% unconditional guarantee for the highest level of consumer satisfaction.
